

A SCARY STORY

The Deadly night

One day at the edge of midnight Bill Jones was walking through the dark woods coming home from night school.

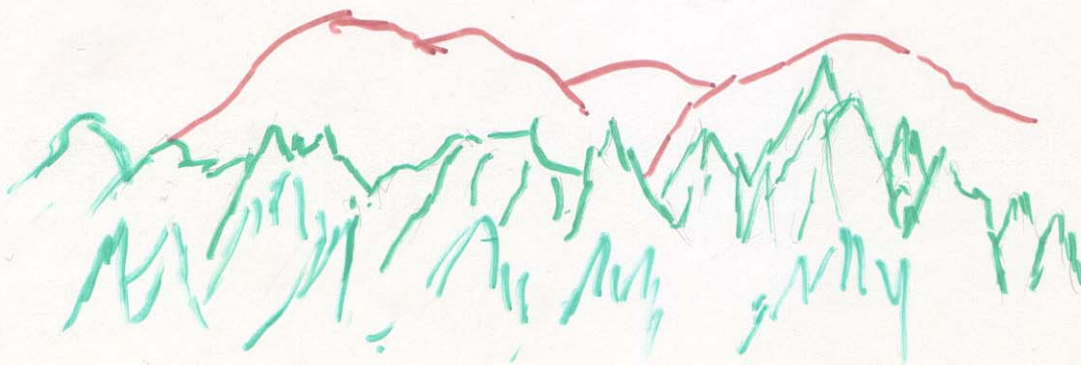

It was Friday, the 13th, now Bill was not the kind that believes in superstition but this day always gave him the creeps.

The dead of night made it even spookier. Chickets crept as owls screeched. Bats flew over head as Bill crept quietly through the forest.

Suddenly a light flashed through the sky, lighting the whole forest for a whole second.

Bill was bewildered as he walked even faster through the forest. But then he heard a deafening high pitched sound coming from right in front of him.

He walked toward it until he could see a light light coming from behind a bush.

He stepped silently toward the brush. He peeped over seeing a luminous light blinding him for a split of a second. He looked again.
this time a giant panel lowered from the giant light.

Inside was more lights but built to a giant computer circling the whole round ball. Then a giant silhouetted the whole panel. He strode out with giant steps as smaller ones just 7 feet, came from behind.

Then he saw the gruesome figure of the huge one. He had giant fangs and huge menacing eyes. His scaly skin glistening in the light.

"This, he said in a hollow horror
filled with death, is where we start Earth's destruction." He looked in back of him as two others brought out a giant gun like machine. The thing aimed as a stream of light flashed toward a part of the forest. Then as silent as the night it disintegrated. The whole land stood broken and burned.

The thing lifted its head in a sinister laugh baring his long fangs at what horrible feat he had accomplished.

"With the laser at the end of my ship I will rule all Earth and make slaves of all the meek beings."

But it was wrong Bill knew he had to do something, but what. Then he remembered the gun. He could demolish the ship so no harm to Earth will come.

Bill rushed to the gun but the thing picked him up by the neck and smiled. "Ah, our first slave."

Bill was choking so he kicked the thing hard and ran to the gun. He pulled the trigger.

It was more powerful than he thought as his body hurdled away as everything merely disintegrated.

Later

"News Today. The weird phenomenon down at Bear Forest was found very baffling as only the body of Bill Jones was recovered. The only other thing that survived was some fangs of some huge unknown animal. Scientists do not know what happened. What and why did it happen, nobody knows."
